

Reply all | Delete | Junk | ...

Re: Job Offer

Thomas, Jennifer C.

Wed 4/27/2016 6:39 PM

To: Alexis Porter <porteran94@gmail.com> ↗

Reply all |

Sent Items

You forwarded this message on 4/27/2016 6:44 PM

YES!!!!!! OMG!! Alexis!!!!!! You made my day! I actually did speak to someone with Hearst this week.. I am THRILLED for you!! You are going to shine!! I'd like to chat if possible before you get started! Are you excited? 😊
May I share with the faculty and fellow classmates??
Prof. Thomas

Jennifer C. Thomas
Assistant Professor
Howard University School of Communications
Department of Media, Journalism and Film
Advisor, Howard Univ. Association of Black Journalists (HUABJ)
President, Howard Univ. Communications Alumni Association (HUCAA)
525 Bryant St. NW | Room W5 233-O
Washington, DC 20059
(202) 806-4833 - Direct | (202) 806-7927 - Main
jennifer.thomas@howard.edu

From: Alexis Porter <porteran94@gmail.com>
Sent: Wednesday, April 27, 2016 6:35 PM
To: Thomas, Jennifer C.
Subject: Job Offer

Hi Professor Thomas!

Thank you for a great year and for helping me grow as a person and a journalist. Earlier today I received a call saying I was awarded the Hearst Producing Fellowship! I am extremely excited for this opportunity and can't wait to see what is in store for me.

This is the fellowship you wrote me a (very good) recommendation letter for. I will be spending 10 weeks training at one of their stations (I will find out the location by the end of this week). After that I will be presented with a job offer for a full-time newscast producing position at another Hearst station. This program is nice because I can skip the whole production assistant ordeal and start my career as a producer immediately.

I do not know the station I will be training at, I will find out by Friday, but I start on June 6 and will keep you posted on my journey!

 Reply all |   Delete  Junk |

Alexis Porter
Howard University
Bachelor of Arts Candidate, 2016
Broadcast Journalism Major
Political Science Minor