Subject: Re: Landing a job in TV panel

Sept. 14, 2017

Dear Jennifer,

On behalf of the Howard University School of Communications, I would like to invite you to serve on a panel at our 2017 Annual Communications Job & Internship Fair, which will be held Thursday, October 26, 2017 10:00 a.m. – 11:15 a.m, The Forum (1st Floor) Blackburn. The fair will be held at the Armour J. Blackburn University Center on Howard's main campus. The title of your session is called "Landing a job in TV."

As you may know, there will be young people from throughout the country (mainly from minority groups) in attendance. They are quite eager to successfully begin their career paths in communications. You can make a major contribution to this event by providing some perspectives on creating a career path in the broadcast industry. You may discuss internships, training programs, and any other information that will enhance their entry into the discipline. You can talk about trends and where the industry is headed. You should be prepared to speak to these young people for 10-15 minutes, as there will be other panelists speaking as well as a question and answer period for participants.

I thank you for considering our invitation to speak to these young people. If you are available, please email me at Indira.somani@howard.edu. I realize you did this last year, but it was such a strong panel, we'd like to have you again.

Should you have any questions you may call me at 202.806.5118 or email me. Please confirm as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

Indira S. Somani, Ph.D.
