Hi Professor Thomas!

Just wanted to reach out and check on you. Before you say I forgot about you lol, I tried reaching out a couple times but never heard back.

I met up with Jazmyn and Jailyn from our class this week and we couldn't stop talking about you. We were all just reminiscing of the good times at Howard and how much you shaped the professional women we are today. (Thank you for that, by the way.) The deadlines, and news quizzes actually helped in the "real world."

A little life update on me, so I'm currently working for Billboard. I'm a digital producer/News Content Manager there and I'm also a contracted writer for Essence Magazine, Madame Noire and XoNecole, so let's just say I've been pretty busy since leaving Howard.

Hope all is well with you and your new babies of BJII. Keep teaching them the skills that will last a lifetime. You'll always be our JT the EP in our eyes!

If you run into Dr. Kaggwa, be sure to tell him hello for me!

Most of our BJ class will be back for homecoming in October, and we would all love to see you so hopefully we'll be able to set that up. Enjoy your weekend!
