Hi professor Thomas,

I was just emailing you to say thank you for everything again and updating you on NBC so far. This is the end of week 4. I've been working 50-60 hours per week but learning a lot and building myself up for a pitch for their online site. I also briefly spoke to Shaquille a while back via text for advice coming into the bureau. That's all the post grad updates I have for you but thanks again so much. I would've been totally confused without your classes.

Sincerely,
Dawchelle Hamilton

PS: Also, do you know Leon Harris? He just transferred over to NBC4. He was previously with WJLA.
