Jennifer,

I hope you're doing well.

If by now, you haven't received my note in the post, then it's time for an email:

I can't thank you enough for all the time and effort you put in to guiding me during the course of NABJ Student Projects 2014.

Attending the convention was such an overwhelming, life-changing experience. Until then, never had I experienced such kindness, willingness to collaborate and teach in a professional environment. Nor had I met so many people who were vested in my success.

Thanks to you and the other mentors, I feel like I've returned to South Africa a stronger, more inspired reporter and certainly more confident to tackle my aspirations head on.

I'd really appreciate it if we were to continue our mentor/mentee relationship, I feel there's so much I can learn from you. I'll also try to teach you a thing or two and not just different terminology like "voxies".

I hope to attend future NABJ conventions, so I'm sure I'll see you soon.
Until then, please do keep in touch and feel free to reach out if ever you're in my part of the world.

Best,
Prinesha
