 They're calling it an Academy Award white-out...
 While, the grand Hollywood ceremony is just weeks away,
 --(take sot as vo- oscar noms)--
 The nominations have been met with twitter outrage - hashtag "oscars so white" trending.
 as all 20 nominees in the best actor category are looking pretty much the same...white.
 And, now some of Hollywood's most prominent African American stars are taking a stand..
 today, filmmaker spike lee and jada pinkett smith are using martin luther king junior holiday to speak out.
 lee, an honorary academy award winner, took to instagram--
 --(spike lee pilot)-- saying in part, quote- how is it possible for the 2nd consecutive year all 20 contenders under the actor category are white?
 and let's not even get into the other branches.
 40 white actors in 2 years and no flava at all. we can't act?!
 w-t-f - end quote.
 --(on cam)--
 pinkett smith, whose husband will was not nominated for his role in "concussion" also took to social media:
 --(take sot)---
 trt:28
 oc:let's do us differently
 --(2-shot)--
 joining me now, chris witherspoon, cnn analyst and entertainment editor, thegrio.com second year in a row, no black actors nominated in major films- why??
 FOLO 1: don cheadle- went to twitter and joked to chris rock saying "yo, chris. come check me out at #theoscars this year. they got me parking cars on g level." (theadle fs-twitter)
 What affect do the boycotts and Hollywood

social media reaction have? In the end - what changes?

FOLO 2: two films featuring African American actors, creed and straight outta compton were nominated for other awards -- critics choice, producers and actors guilds awards- but no mention for an Oscar...academy president cheryl boone isaacs - who is black- expressed disappointment but still calls this a great year in film. What films and actor nods would you say are missing from the nomination list?

FOLO 3: how might chris rock handle this on oscars night -- he's hosting. (and to note reginald hudlin, who is oscar-nominated african-american director/producer will be a co-producer of the broadcast)

FOLO 4: One columnist writes the Academy's voting body seems "most comfortable seeing African-Americans played in certain ways," Do you agree?
