Good Morning Colleagues

I am contacting all of you because you have consistently attended the Junior Faculty Forums over the past academic year and I would like for you to be a part of the New Faculty Orientation this fall. The New Faculty Orientation date is Wednesday, August 16, 2017.

At this point, I am planning on various roles for the junior faculty in the Orientation session such as doing a Two -Three minute-presentation on what you wished you knew when you were a new faculty member or serving on a panel or something else (still planning). I think it is vitality important that these new faculty members see and are introduced to our tenured faculty of the future (smile -that's you). So, I am sending the date early to find out if you can participate in some role at the new faculty orientation this fall. Let me know at your earliest convenience. Yours,
Associate Provost Dark
